

Subject: List Your Luxury Property Where High-Net-Worth Renters Are Looking

Hi [First Name],

I'm reaching out with a simple question:

Is your luxury rental property being seen by the right people?

At LuxuryApartments.com, we specialize in matching high-end properties with high-net-worth renters-executives, international families, investors, and relocating professionals who value privacy, design, and service.

Unlike mass-market platforms, we offer:

- Verified(TM) Listings to boost trust and conversions
- White-glove concierge scheduling to pre-qualify leads
- Premium placement among only luxury properties
- Access to our invite-only Private Collection tier for top-tier listings
- Optional upsells like 3D tours, virtual staging, and lifestyle bundles

Our landlords and brokers consistently report:

- Faster leasing cycles
- Higher-quality tenant matches
- Better tenant retention

Ready to stand out in a sea of sameness?

List your property on a platform that speaks your language-and your renter's.

Let me know if you'd like to book a quick walkthrough or get started. I'd be happy to show you how it works.

Best,

[Your Name]
